F O R E W O R D

At a time when all Americans are turning to an even greater loyalty to their government and ideals of democracy, it is only natural that the students of Longview High School shall appreciate even more the American Public School System. Loyalty is our keynote and devotion our watchword—loyalty and devotion not only to our school activities and organizations but also to ourselves and our American rights. Recording and preserving our deeds and our aspirations, pouring our hearts and souls to a new task, Loyalty to All of America Forever—we give you THE LOBO—1941.

DEDICATION . . . H. L. Foster

To our superintendent, Henry L. Foster, who for twenty-seven years has devoted his spirit, resources, time, and abilities to the Longview Public School System, we gratefully dedicate the 1941 LOBO.

"MARCH OF TIME"

- SEPTEMBER 9—The Seniors registered today, and the Student Body president, Jimmy Goodson, made a fine speech.
- SEPTEMBER 10—Today was the Juniors' day to register. They were mighty glad their Sophomore days were over.
- SEPTEMBER 11—Last, but not least, the bewildered and frightened Sophomores fixed their schedules.
- SEPTEMBER 12—Classes began for another year, and the halls rang with laughter and talking.
- SEPTEMBER 13—The B team started off with a bang as they won their first game.
- SEPTEMBER 14—The Senior High Teachers had a steak fry tonight to catch up on the gossip of their summer vacations.
- SEPTEMBER 17—First P. T. A. meeting this afternoon—we got out early.
- SEPTEMBER 18—Tonight the first school dance of the year was held in the Gym.
- SEPTEMBER 19—The teachers ate tonight! They were honored with a Rotarian Banquet.
- SEPTEMBER 20—The Longview Lobos started off with one of the hardest schedules of any high school by downing the Royal Purple of Beaumont 7-0.
- SEPTEMBER 27—The Lobos lassoed the Fort Worth Steers by a 20-0 score.
- OCTOBER 3—Everyone came prepared to smile at the birdie. Pictures were taken.
- OCTOBER 4—By defeating the Port Arthur Yellow Jackets 20-13, the Lobos made the leading sports writers sit up and take notice.
- OCTOBER 7—The annual staff started the drive for paper.
- OCTOBER 11—The Lobos won their first 1940 conference victory over the Athens Hornets 39-0.
- OCTOBER 14—Many smiles of pleasure were seen today for the pictures for the annual arrived.
- OCTOBER 15—Sara Grace Yarbrough represented Longview at the third annual Forest Festival in Lufkin.
- OCTOBER 18—The Lobos whipped Texarkana 26-12 after a slow start.
- OCTOBER 23—The Sadie Hawkins Dance was proclaimed by all a success.
- OCTOBER 24—Annie Frances Bisilline represented Longview as princess at the sixth annual East Texas Yamboree held in Gilmer.
- OCTOBER 25—Everybody trekked happily to Kilgore tonight, but it was hard to smile on the return trip. The Bulldogs defeated the Lobos 14-7.
- NOVEMBER 1—The Lobos beat the Wildcats from Woodrow Wilson, Dallas, 6-0, with several first stringers on the bench.
- NOVEMBER 7—Dorothy Chaffin was crowned Queen of L. H. S. in a beautiful ceremony at the Junior High School.
- NOVEMBER 8—Jane Jo Medley represented Longview at the Harvest Festival in Marshall.
- NOVEMBER 11—The Lobos gained another well earned victory by defeating the Tyler Lions 14-7. The boys played splendidly.
- NOVEMBER 13—Miss Jane Etheridge's home room presented "Lil' Abner," a cleverly worked out program.
- NOVEMBER 15—The Dramatic Club sponsored one of the most popular comedies of the year, "Foot Loose."
- NOVEMBER 16—Jean Tooke represented Longview as princess in the Coronation of the Queen at the American Legion Patriotic Celebration in Mineola. June Bazzell accompanied her and represented the High School as duchess.
- NOVEMBER 21—Longview celebrated President Roosevelt's Thanksgiving, and the Lobos celebrated after defeating Marshall's Mavericks 40-12.
- NOVEMBER 28—The Lobos won a tough struggle from the Gladewater Golden Bears 13-6.
- NOVEMBER 29—L. H. S. lost Miss Brannon as she became Mrs. R. J. Emmers.
- DECEMBER 6—In the Bi-district tilt at Lobo Stadium, the Lobos beat the Lufkin Panthers 19-12.
- DECEMBER 11—The Junior Revue proved highly entertaining.
- DECEMBER 13—Longview was sad. On a muddy field the Lobos lost the Quarter-Finals game to the Temple Wildcats 24-13.
- DECEMBER 20—Today L. H. S. closed its doors until January 2, 1941, for the Christmas Holidays.
- JANUARY 2, 1941—School started today, ending the two weeks vacation.
- JANUARY 11—Thirty members of the Junior Classical League attended a meeting in Waco to organize a temporary state organization.
- JANUARY 24—Examinations today.
- JANUARY 30—Forty-four frightened sophomores entered L. H. S. fresh from Junior High.
- FEBRUARY 6—Tommy McGannon was sent to Jacksonville to speak on "What a Student Council Can Accomplish for the School."
- FEBRUARY 7—The second annual Rhythm Review was a great success. Billie Jean Flannery was introduced as Band Sweetheart.
- FEBRUARY 14—The Library Club gave a pay program.
- FEBRUARY 15—The Junior Classical League sponsored a Valentine Dance.
- FEBRUARY 22—Billy Richardson was elected captain of the 1941 Lobos by the football lettermen.
- MARCH 1—March came in today like a lion.
- MARCH 3—Latin students were working hard for the district tournament.
- MARCH 20—At last, spring arrived.
- MARCH 26—Today the L. H. S. debaters entered the Interscholastic League meet.
- APRIL 5—Latin students went to Texarkana for the district tournament.
- APRIL 11—Good Friday—we got out for three whole days.
- APRIL 11 and 12—Band Contest here in Longview.
- APRIL 13—Today was Easter and everyone showed off his new spring clothes.
- APRIL 25—The Seniors presented "Lost April."
- APRIL 30—The last of April. The Seniors started counting the days till their day.
- MAY 1—All L. H. S. anxiously awaited the closing of school.
- MAY 19—The town was quiet. Perhaps some L. H. S. students were cramming for the final exams.
- MAY 22—Senior finals were taken today.
- MAY 23—Senior Day was celebrated today.
- MAY 27—Junior and Sophomore finals were taken today.
- MAY 29—Report cards were received.

WILL

As everyone knows, anyone who is about to pass on usually makes out his will, so that his friends and relatives will know what they get from the ole duffer. In this case, the Seniors of 1941 are leaving their gifts, abilities, and peculiarities to helpless underclassmen.

The first person we talked to was Albert ("Butch") Carter, who said he would like to leave his ability to play in many pigskin thrillers to Clinton ("Big Dog") Smith.

To Ann Fentress, "Dopey" Flannery wills her big mouth, although Ann does well enough with her own.

Mellonie Abney bestows her ability to act in dramatic productions on Margaret Stamps who needs but little coaching.

To Ruth Dekle, Catherine Adams lets go her ability to draw pretty pictures and make posters for the nice, nice annual staff.

Lee Adkins leaves his bigness to Jimmie Fogartie, and we hope he can get by with it and manage better than Lee.

Trudi Allen wills her sweetness to Gayle Gandy, and we hope she will in turn leave it where it will do the most good.

Frances Anderson gives her position in the pep squad to Wilma Crabtree, and we hope there will be more to follow her example. (Free Plug.)

Doris Andrews, who is getting big hearted, gladly gives her sports column to anyone who would like to take it.

Martha Lee Ashcraft leaves her quietness to Clydell Henderson, who, by the way, never says a word.

William Avery says his violin goes to Joan Bowman, who, incidentally, plays a hot trombone.

Anna Jean Barker wills her turning on two wheels to Rose Mary Stuckey, and we hope Rosie learns to master it some day.

Maurice Barrett gives his place in the Science Club to young Guy Connelley. Guy will make a good heir, don't you think???

Elsie Bell leaves her position in the band to Joyce Draper, who already occupies one chair.

Billy Calloway bestows upon his sister, June, his place in any Senior English class; let's hope she enjoys it more than he did.

Bill Carnahan wills his knowledge of the Bible to his little brother, Phil.

Boots Carter says that his good friend Kennon Chambers gets all of his ideas, and these include "Nite Life and How to Spend It."

Joyce Clark leaves her wisdom to Zelda Bell, who is going to use it to some good, we hope.

Jim Cocke gives to Jimmie Bothwell his big feet. Can you use them, Jim??

Jack Coghlan leaves his cowboy boots to Bert Bivins. Hi Ho Silver!

Keith Cole bestows his shortness on John Dunaway, and we hope he tries to use it.

Even though Jimmie Blakeley is quite cute without them, Teg Collins leaves him his good looks. Don't break too many hearts, Jimmy.

Frances Comer wills her pretty brown eyes to Beverly Brown; they will look pretty on Beverly.

Annie Frances Bristline leaves her cameo-like face to Billie Frances Brundage.

Knottie Bivins turns over his personality to Jack Burke. Wonder if Jack will acquire any of that "Knottie" charm??? He needs it.

Jessie Bivins leaves her baton to Betty Jo Wilson and hopes Betty will be careful how she slings it.

Bernard Boucher bequeaths his boxing ability to Billy Newman because there may be a time when Billy will need some knowledge of self defense.

Helon Ruth Bruton leaves her sweet ways to Patsy Numsen who really could use a few.

Jane Connor loans her technique to Charlotte Grissom; try it, you might be surprised.

Virginia Crain wills her place on the paper staff to Jane Buckley.

Bobby Daniels gives his trumpet to any young man who has lots of wind and cares to use it.

Billy Deane hopes that another Longviewite will get his picture in Life, and so he leaves his ability in jitter bugging to H. J. Burns.

Because we all hope that Emily Wood will grow up someday, Ann Ava Denson leaves her height to "sister."

Malcolm Elliott says his cuteness goes to Kenneth Abney, but we know that the undergrads wish that he would take it with him.

The great Don Fambrough bequeaths his football ability to Jack Wood. Isn't that sweet, tho?

Now, Bill Bryant should feel honored because James Fenton wants to give him his pretty blonde hair.

Fay Ferrell thought that she would do better if she left her temper somewhere. Katherine Harrison, you are the victim.

Ray Ferrell leaves his brilliant mind to Marcus Barnes; try it; maybe he has something there.

Algie (Dorsey) Glover turns over his swing band to Fred Kerstetter.

Jerre Northcutt leaves his wise cracks to Mrs. Rossom, who will gladly take them to throw away.

Bernice Goode wills his false teeth to Tiger Sutton. They will look cute on him, too.

Doris Ann Henderson leaves her title of "Little Spook" to Evelyn Wood who sometimes looks like a ghost.

To hard-working Jean Dalston, John Holland leaves his position of Business Manager.

Since Jimmy Goodson thought it useless to will his good looks to Gordon Johnston, he substitutes his job as "Prexy."

Marjorie Grant wills her good disposition to Ouida Norris, but J. P. Oden doesn't think Ouida has any need of it.

Merle Greaves leaves his place on the football team to Olin Faircloth. This should be good.

L. H. S. must have its well dressed Romeos; so Byron Hampton turns generous and bestows his clothes upon James Marvin Kelly.

After Lois Andrews' smashing success in the Andrews Sisters, Billie Jean Hardin feels that her place in the Harmonettes can be filled by Tootsie.

J. G. Hurst leaves his car to Eddie Martin. Let's hope he makes some use of it. Give the girls a break.

Bootsie James doesn't want L. H. S. to be without at least one Hepburn; so she leaves her acting ability to Katie Shumate.

Charles Johnson gives to Harry Warren his pretty eyes.

Fred Johnson leaves his cuteness to A. G. Shaw. Don't think you need it tho, A. G.

Helen Johnson says her place as Editor of the Long-View goes to Suzanne Thurman. We hope you do as well as Helen did.

Ima Jean Jones wills her horn to anyone who likes squeaks. Do we have any "takers"?

Billy Jack Lancaster gives his good looks to Joe Adams. Maybe Joe will be king next year.

To Lamar Eberhardt, Howard McDonald bequeaths his physique. (More he man stuff!!)

George Norris leaves his place in the senior class which he has had so long to Floyd Rumbaugh who will stay over again.

To Dorothea Jones, Winnie Mae Nichols wills her place on the annual staff.

Mary Pipsaire leaves her brains to anyone who could use a few. Don't everyone grab at once.

Tommy McGannon slights the girls and leaves his eye lashes to Charles James.

Regretfully, Dana Martin wills her beau, Jimmie Aenchbacher, to any lucky girl who can take over.

To the choral class, Gladys Mack leaves her nice alto voice.

Gunga Mason bestows his position as editor of the annual upon anyone who wants a big headache. (B. C. doesn't help either.)

Knowing that her big smile is a help in selling ads, Jane Jo Medley bequeaths this asset to Jane Castleberry.

Gus Pool leaves his ability to get girls to Winifred Feazel. Who knows; maybe he will get another Sarah Grace someday.

Even though Douglas Reeh would like to be another Joe Louis, he decides to be generous and leave Carl Vogel his boxing ability.

Billy Richardson bequeaths his personality to Jim Carter. With the looks he already has and this new personality, will the poor girls have a chance?

T. A. Scott wills his shyness to Fay Horne. (A much better beneficiary would have been J. T. Jeffress.)

Charles Skidmore leaves his cuteness to Hugh Coats. Well, we think he is cute anyhow.

In order to help Bobby Smith in his singing career, Wayland Smith wills him his good looking clothes.

Dorothy (Baby) Chaffin finally persuaded Mayme Jayne Thompson to leave her that nice personality.

James Todd leaves his sax playing ability to Jerry Gasaway.

Jean Tooke gives her sweetness to Clara Jean Harris.

Sidney Tutt says his place working as general flunkie on the annual goes to anyone who will take it.

J. E. Warr leaves June Bazzell to some lucky boy who wants to fill his shoes.

To cute little Mary K. Cain, Glenna Wilson wills those bewitching dimples.

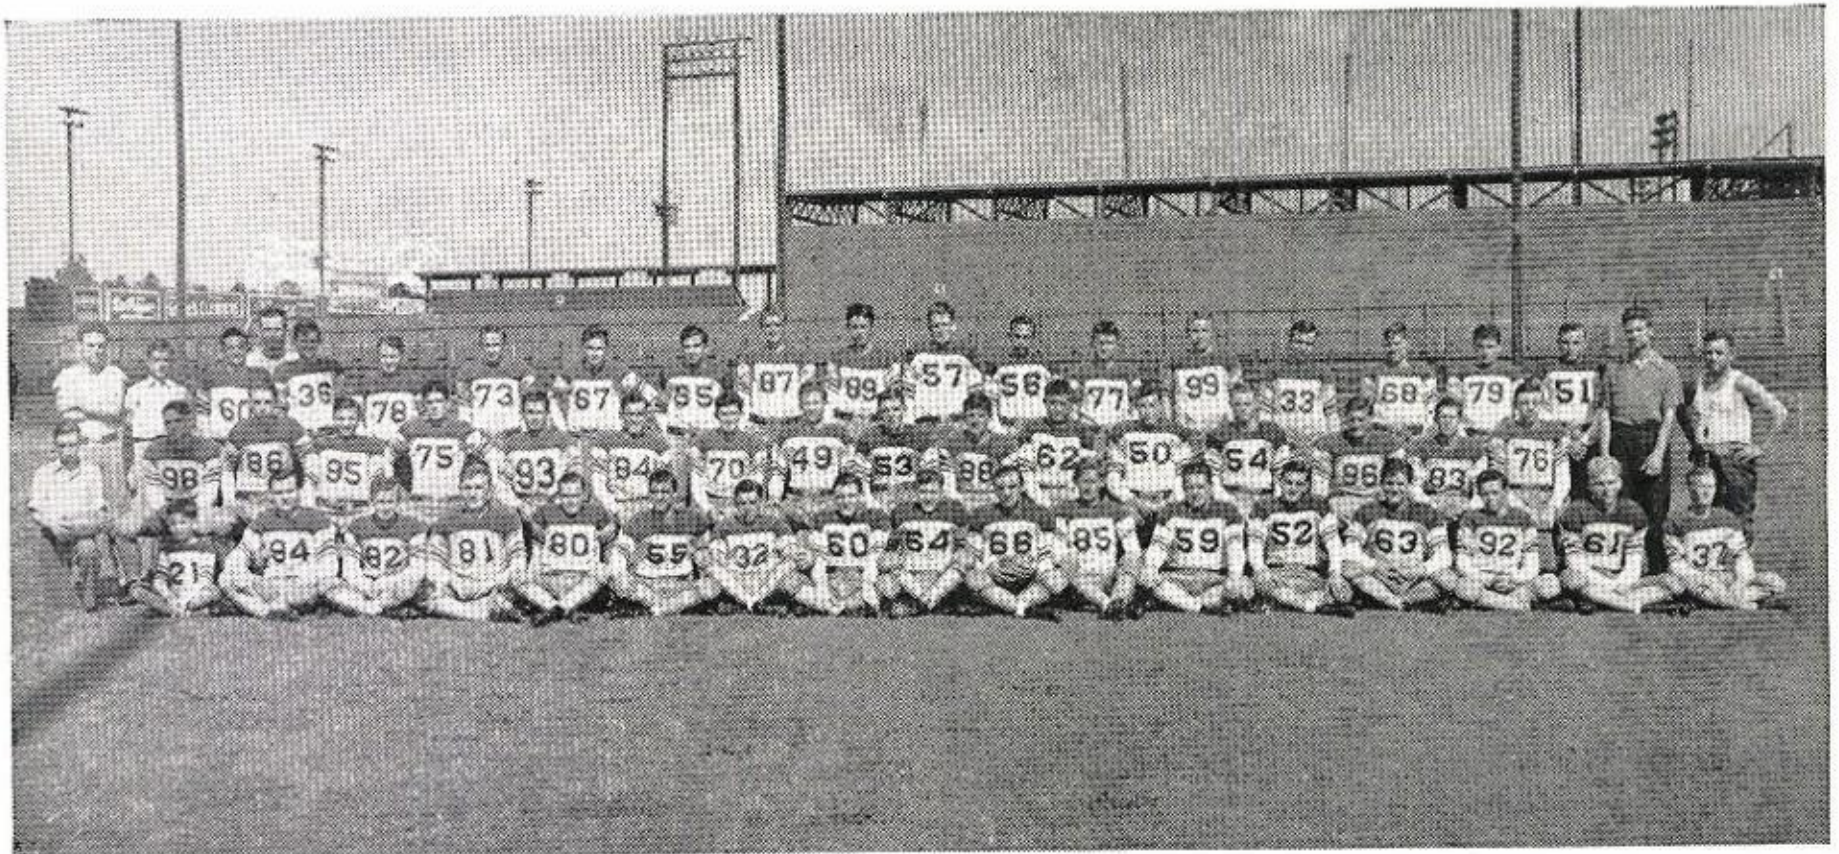

Lauree Wood swears to leave the boys alone and give them a break, how's that—boys?

FOOTBALL . . .

Billy Richardson began the Lobo's scoring for the year by catching T. A. Scott's pass for a touchdown that beat Beaumont 7-0.

Don Fambrough began his scoring, which ended in his being the State's high-point man, in the Port Arthur game by scoring 20 points. Final score: Lobos 20, Yellow Jackets 13.

Northside (Ft. Worth) was beaten by the Lobos 20-0. Jack Murray was outstanding by his running back a punt for a touchdown.

McDONALD SMITH RICHARDSON THOMAS

. . . LETTERMEN

The Lobos ran over a fast Athens team spurred on by the playing of W. Shaw by beating them 39-0.

The Wolves beat a powerful and heavy Texarkana team by the score of 27-12. Howard McDonald stood out with his consistent end play.

Longview 7, Kilgore 14. Among the gallant Lobos, Knottie Bivins will be remembered long for his superb defensive play.

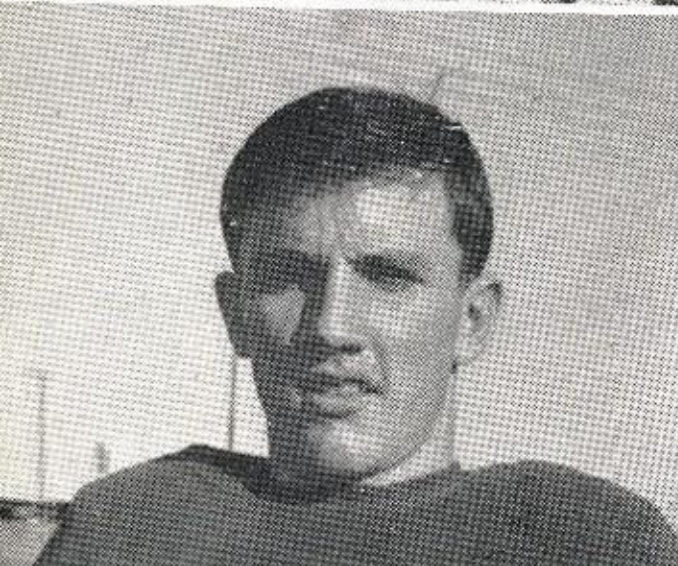

CARTER LINEBARGER
GRIFFITH BURNS

FOOTBALL . . .

Joe Adams and H. J. Burns starred when a crippled Lobo team beat Woodrow Wilson 6-0.

The Lobos came back stronger than ever by upsetting Tyler and throwing the district race into a mixup. C. Smith and "Butch" Carter played a splendid game at tackles. Score: 14-7.

Jimmy Goodson, our very capable center, almost fulfilled his desire to make a touchdown when the team ran over Marshall 40-12.

... LETTERMEN

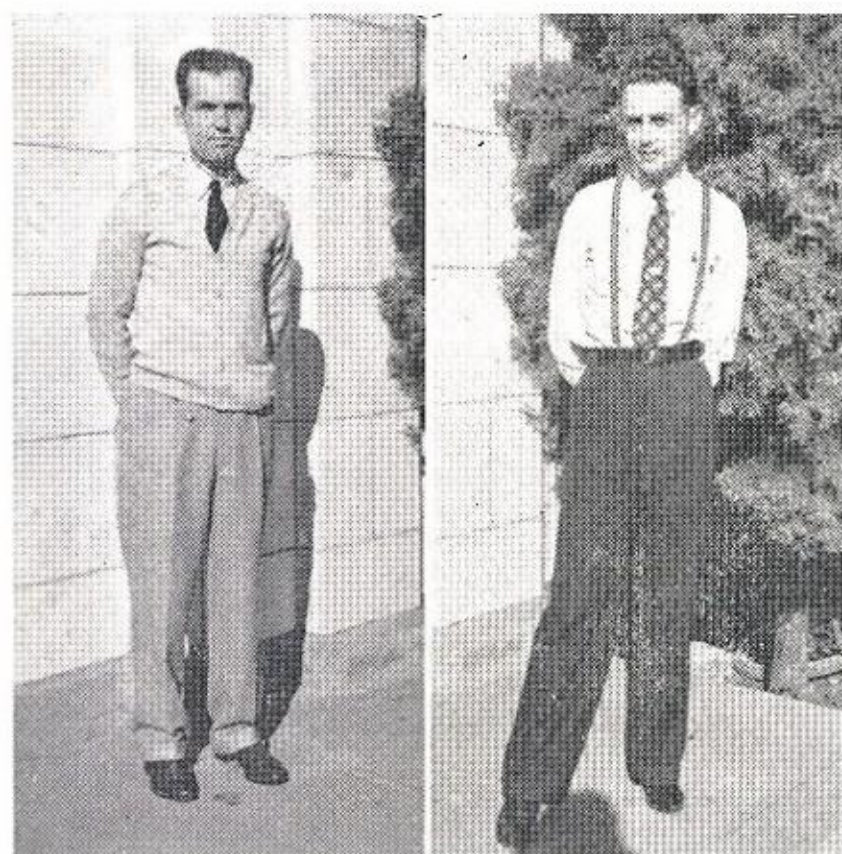

Gladewater gave us some tight moments at times, but the Lobos beat them 13-6. John Linebarger played an exceptional game at guard.

After winning the district title by a flip of a coin, the Lobos became the bi-district champs by beating Lufkin 19-12. Bobby Griffith starred at guard.

Temple, in a nice black mud, took the Lobos out of state competition by defeating them 13-24. T. A. Scott left a record behind that everyone will remember. He completed 21 out of 31 passes with a wet and muddy ball.

BOYS' . . .

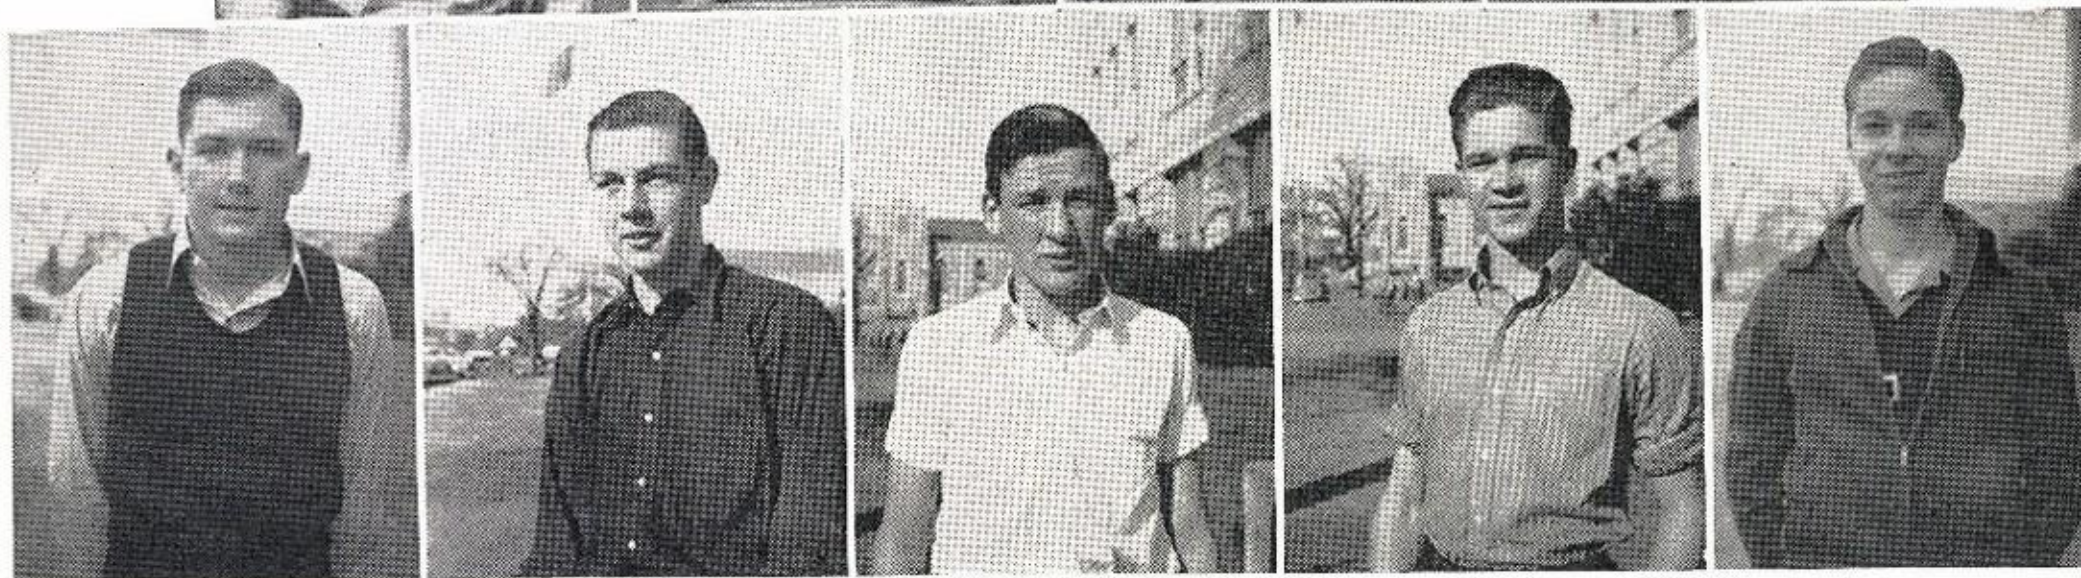

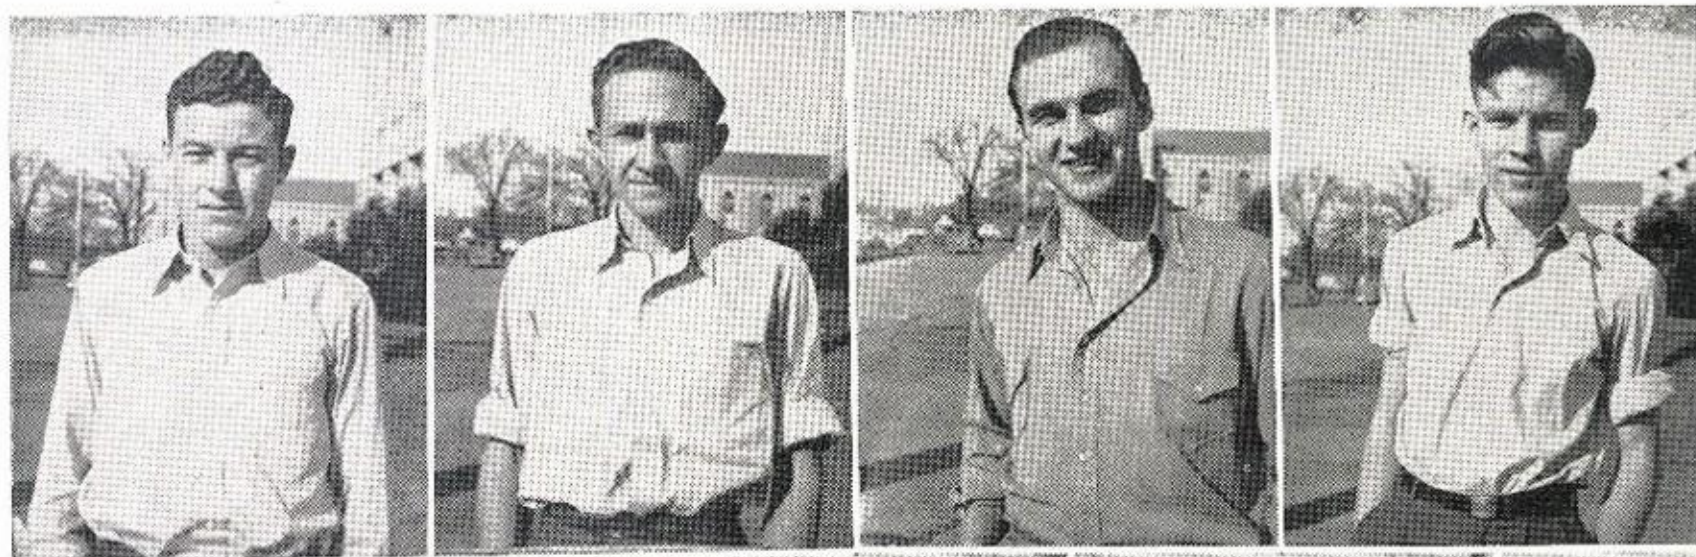

Jack Skinner, Harry Lee Summers, John C. Spradley, Eddie Martin, Robert Huff, Joe Adams, Don Fambrough, Melton Milner, Captain T. A. Scott, Coach Shotwell, Assistant Coach Blackburn, Lamar Fieberheart, Robert Crowley, Charles Freudiger, J. T. Jeffress, Jimmy Moody.

The Lobos came out of their 1941 season just short of a district title. The team was led by a flashy forward named T. A. Scott. He and Robert Crowley were good at tricky shots in close to the basket. Their shots at the basket seldom missed. Don Fambrough, sporting a little roughness in several games, was a good guard. Charles Freudiger showed the audience some good left hand shots. "Chili" plays guard, forward, or center.

... BASKETBALL

T. A. Scott, Robert Crowley, Don Fambrough, Robert Huff,
Howard McDonald, Harry Summers, Charles Freudiger, Melton Milner, Joe Adams

Milner, Skinner, and Huff also did fine work on the court. Little Joe Adams was always good for a long shot from out in the middle of the court when he went in. Tall Harry Summers, ineligible until after mid-term, showed us some fine playing as a center. Although they didn't win district, we are proud of our basketball team.

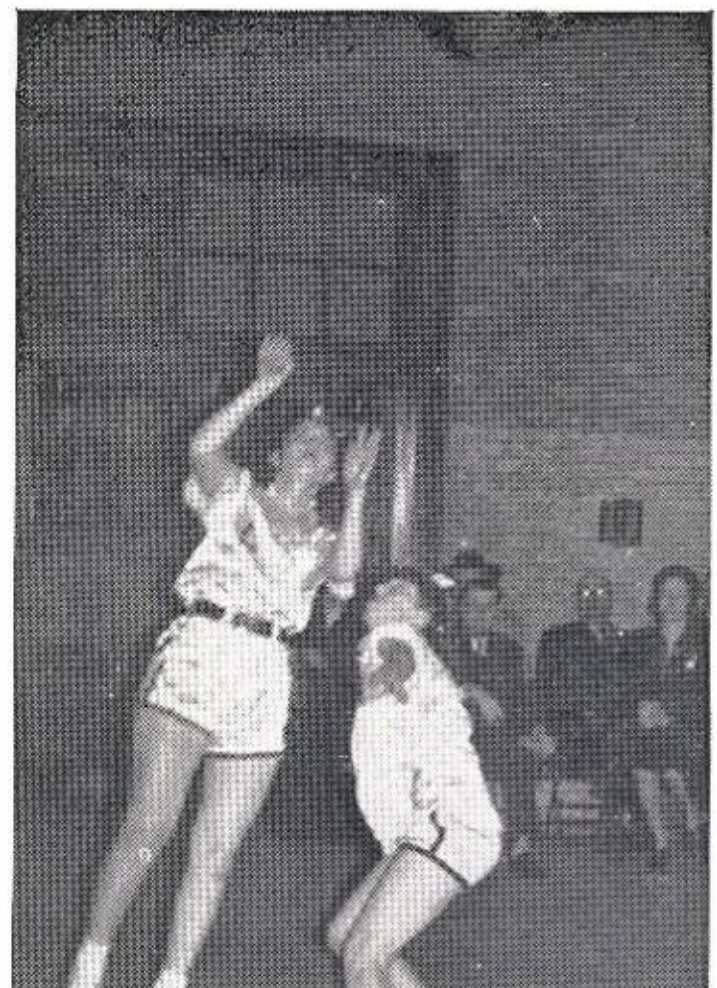

GIRLS' . . .

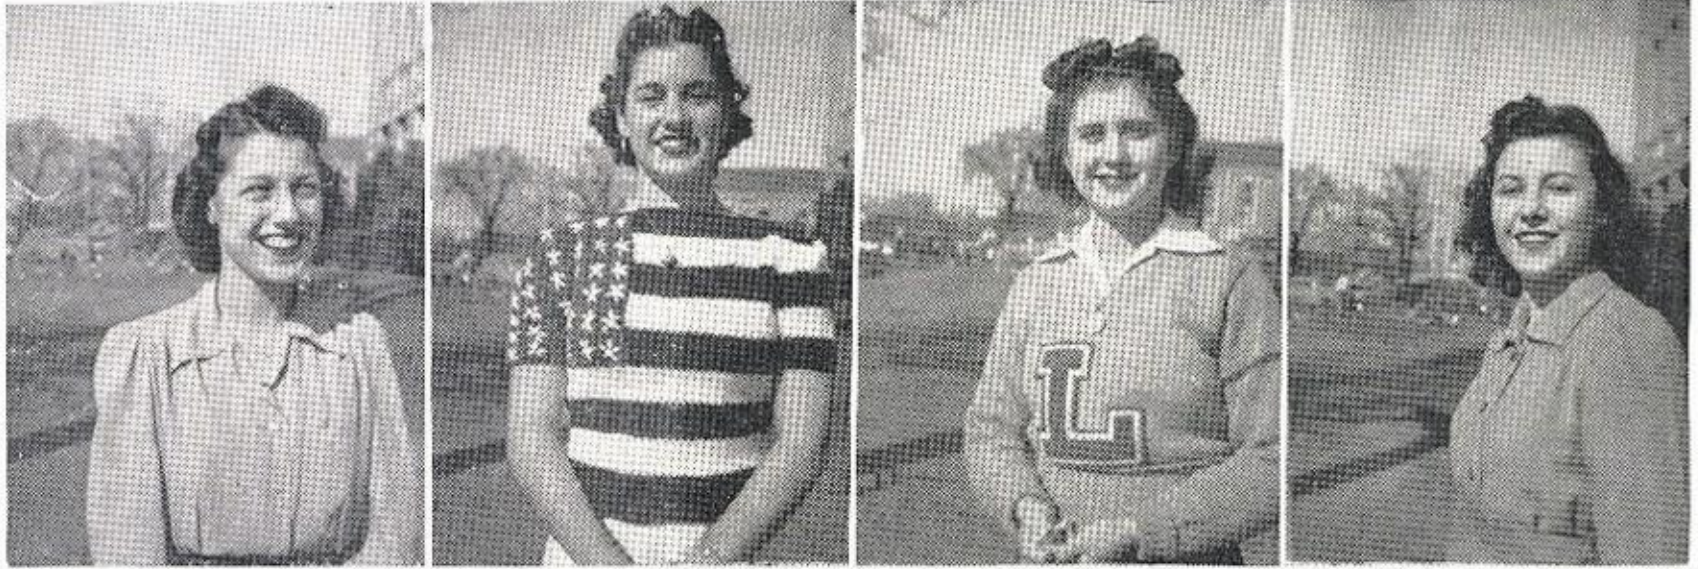

Louise Bailey, Peggy Jean Goodson, Ouida Norris, Jimmie Leach, Billie F. Brundage, Mattie Belle Pinson, Hazel Wood, Julia Ann Lucy, Phyllis Creasy, Clara Jean Harris, Estelle Givens.

HUMOR

Jim Goodson: (on phone): Hello, what are you doing?

Dot Chaffin: Getting ready for church.

Jim: Sorry. Wrong number.

Political speaker: I'm pleased to see this dense crowd here tonight!

Voice from the back: Don't be too pleased. We ain't all dense!

Who were the Albigenses and where did they live? I don't know who they were nor where they lived, but whoever they were and wherever they lived I wish them a merry Christmas.

Wilkie: Now, if I subtract 25 from 37, what's the difference?

Floyd: Yeah! that's what I say. Who cares?

Dot Chaffin was so dumb that she thought mufflers were used to keep draft out of the motor and that the clutch was a new dance.

Tommy: I would like to have some good old fashioned loving.

Jane Jo: O. K. Come out to the house and I'll introduce you to grandma.

High heels were invented by Jessie Bivins who had always been kissed on the forehead.

Frank Cerliano was being examined for a driver's license. And what is the white line in the middle of the road for? he was asked.

For bicycles.

Miss Hilliard: Tommy, can you define nonsense?

Tommy Thomas: Yes, teacher—an elephant hanging over a cliff with his tail tied to a daisy.

A pessimist is like a blind man in a dark room looking for a black cat that isn't there.

An eraser is something that you look for until you decide to turn in the theme with the mistake in it.

Lunatic (in asylum yard, meets new superintendent): Who are you?

Superintendent: I'm the new superintendent.

Lunny: Oh, it won't take them long to knock that out of you. I was Napoleon when I came here.

The Sportsmans club was organized to increase the sportsmanship of its members. By their participation in the various sports, the boys hope to develop a better sense of sportsmanship in all phases of life.

This club was organized to further the study of homemaking and create more interest in the subject. There is just as much art in making a barren house into a glistening, comfortable home as there is in painting a picture or in writing a poem.

As a career for women, homemaking offers greater opportunity for leisure, for growth of mind and spirit, for exercise of body, than any other occupation.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS

The purpose of the Library Club is to learn more about books and to get students together in a closer relationship. The club is composed largely of library assistants, but other people are welcome to join; at club meetings book reviews are given, moving pictures are shown, and other interesting things are done.

DRAMATIC . . .

The Dramatic Club supplements the work of the Speech Department. Business meetings are held during the activity period on the second and fourth Thursdays. Special monthly evening programs are given on the fourth Thursday. In addition to regular programs the Club produced in the fall, "Foot-Loose," a three-act play and will sponsor in the second semester, an evening of one-act plays and the regional one-act play contest. A three-act play will be presented by the class in dramatics. The proceeds from productions are being used to equip a speech laboratory.

Joe and Robert pose for the camera.

"The good Ole American Flag."

The basketball stars, Ouida and Estelle.

Manly Manton strikes again.

Frank and Henry look very enthused over everything.

Decil reads up on the history of the school.

Couldn't do without Joe.

A group of sophs.

One of our patriotic school gals; what next, Billie???

Two of our prize football players with fags; my, my, better watch that training, boys.

Andy and Bert are going places.

Our new edition to the L. H. S. faculty, Miss Cox.

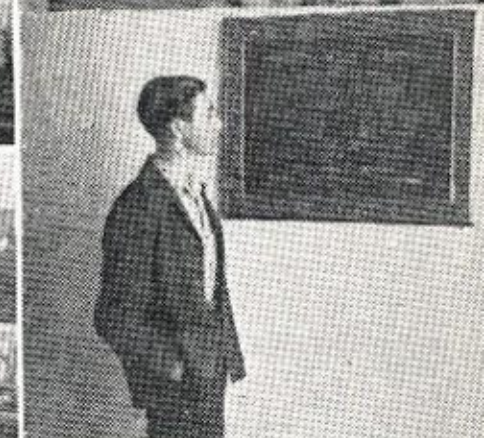

Two members of the band pose together.

My law, another zombie on the loose.

George lets up for a while and gives us a break (???)

Two more of our boys help us out, thanks loads.

The two Janes looking for a man; better watch out!

WILL YOU . . .

Swing band maestro, "T. Dorsey."

Jane Jo—our outstanding senior.

Dear, dear and you're supposed to be a senior.

Billy poses under "Old Glory."

Freak Show 10c.

Ann Lois and Mary with the wind in their hair.

Glamour boys.

Now, let me think.

The Rodden girls.

Beverly and Betty — Man-hunters.

Mr. Larson, I presume.

Eek—Call Mr. Ripley.

Why Ann, how pretty you look.

Oooh! Sourpuss.

"Goon child" Wood and The Fambrough.

The peroxide did a good job eh, Patsy.

Dana smiles at Jimmie.

Three Juniors acting not so smart again.

The gossip is spreading, oh boy!!

Who made you'all mad.

My! My! Where we pick this up.

... EVER FORGET?

You must be surprised, Charlotte!!!

Haven't you learned to count yet, Audrey?

"Big Dog" posed for the camera.

Go on in, as bad as you hate to, Merle!!!

What!! Where's Weinnie???

Oh, Goodness! Another Littlejohn on the loose!!

All packed up and ready to go (???)

Go on, hit Butch, Betty Jo!!

Hello car, where's Mildred???

Did you lose something, Billie Jean?

Smile when you see us next time, Ada!!!

Where's the fire, Dot? Let us go.

Professor Hughes, stops for the camera!

How did you get in here, Jack?

You look very studious, Bettie Lee.

Pose pretty for the camera, girls.

Yes that's Sara Grace.

Pretty boy Skinner is on the loose.

You still have your red hair, Erna Mae.

At least one of our students studies???

The better half of McLaurin's home room.

Smile big, Helen.

A little sophomore, ready to go.

Looks like a fight to the finish.

What do we have here? Looks like forty eleven people on Jackie's fliver.

Our drum major, A. C. all dressed up.

Little H. W. looks pleased over something (??)

Meet part of the Long-view reporters.

Mutt Allen poses for the camera.

Yes, that's Jackie and he's really working.

Gus seems to be interested in something.

That's it! Smile the next time.

Two who will run a good race for valedictorian.

A typical classroom, noise and all.

John and Jack both look mad, better watch out, people.

Gayle and Lois.

It's noon; better gangway for everyone is hungry.

Have you been eating a lemon, Betty?

And then there were two little majorettes.

Someone must have hit Marcus.

More class room stuff. Jessie, turn around.

These little girls must be staying after school.

Our Coach.

Bill Deane is asleep again!

One of L. H. S.'s famous couples, give us a break and pose.

Miss Freeman's home room.

Guess Who??

Congratulations, Class of 1941

Our Sincere Personal

Best Wishes

When Evelyn was so interested in Waco.

The joint bank account Mayme had.

Why Bernice Goode was known as "the Gobler?"

The Student body would be deeply grateful if McLaurin would tell where she gets that bottle blonde job done every week.

Tommy McGannon turned out to be a dyed-in-wool Don Juan after that J. C. L. trip to Waco.

A. & M. won't be the same after Katie's two day man hunt on the campus.

Billie Brady went in the library every day for three months just to sit by "God's Gift to the Women" Spradley.

No one will ever forget the time when Dot Tabb strolled in the Senior play practice with a curl out of place.

. . . FORGET

Barbara Johnson sure used to have a good time laughing at John Bentley.

Floyd Rumbaugh just had the art of getting passes to the Lobo when nobody else could.

We all remember Mary Pipsaire's brains but how could we forget the way she surprised us all by turning out to be a second Jenny Lind?

When J. G. Hurst wore Martha Ann's heart on his watch chain.

When Ada Marie entertained us at Lobo during activity period.

When we had the first quiet assembly.

That Bobby Griffith and Audrey Smith held hands in the halls.

When Lauree Wood got to school on time—yes, it really happened.

When Bonnie Jean did a hula dance in assembly.

The time Jerre Northcutt dyed his hair black and his head turned green—well that's what he said.

When Merle Greaves couldn't wait till Texas History class—and neither could John Linebarger.

When William Avery had to escort Suzonne Thurman to class each day.

When Bootsie James' finger nails were her big attraction to home room boys.

The day Charles Fruediger tried to tell Joan Seward's age by counting her teeth.

The first night James Marvin Kelly got his car.

When Ava Ave played the bell lyre in the band.

The hit that Jimmy and Gunga made with Caroline and Edith.

When Ann Fentress took pleasure in deatening people.

Wouldn't You Really Like to Know

If Virginia Crain ever got over her crush on Howard McDonald?

If Joe Weedman and Doris Andrews are married?

Why a certain group got the Port Arthur trip mixed up with New Year's and made so many good resolutions?

What there was to the story of Helen Johnson's secret love?

Why Glenna Wilson is the "Queen" of her home room?

Who Jane Jo's real one and only is? She must belong to the secret service or something because nobody knows. Maybe it's Yehudi.

Who's red Cord convertible Curly and Moe used to ride to school in?

Why Charles Skidmore is Vice-President of his home room?

Who cuts or fails to cut Billie Dean's chestnut locks?

What happened to the girl Douglas used to stare at in English class last fall?

Why Jeane Tooke is always in the Dog house.

Why Annie Francis is so interested in Kilgore?

If Jean Dalston will ever find a girl as small as he is or is he destined to go with Anne Weeks?

Where those pictures are that somebody took on the Temple Special?

Why Charles Brown comes to school?

What happened to the "think" sign in the study hall?

How Don Fambrough got a part in the Senior Play without trying out for it?

What Jack Wood did the night he had a flat?

What Charles Freudiger and Bettie Lee McAlpin have in common besides debate?

If Emily Wood is really married to a mechanic and if Jimmy Goodson is engaged to a sweet young Dallasite?

What really happened to Pat Keith last Hallowe'en night?

Why H. W. Crowley has eyes for only one?

Why Billie Jean and A. C. really had a bust up?

AND, IN PASSING

It looks as though Jessie is winning the bets she made about going steady again with B. B.

Ooh Goodness, don't Walter Dobbs and Patsy make a cute couple. May this bliss never end.

Not many people know it, but Frances Stevens is a mighty good sport.

Sara Grace and Gus are gonna have to start paying taxes.

Among her many other souvenirs June Bazzell brought some hearts back from Sun Valley.

Many a girl has lost her heart to Teg Collins, but seems as though Teg is the loser this time.

We hear that Jimmy Goodson did all right for himself at the Kilgore Carnival Friday, March 28.

Yep, it must be love. After all these years John and Mildred back together again.

It seems that Algie won in the Glover-Huff contest for Gandy.

Bobby Mickle has found his heart's desire at last, Rose Mary Stuckey.

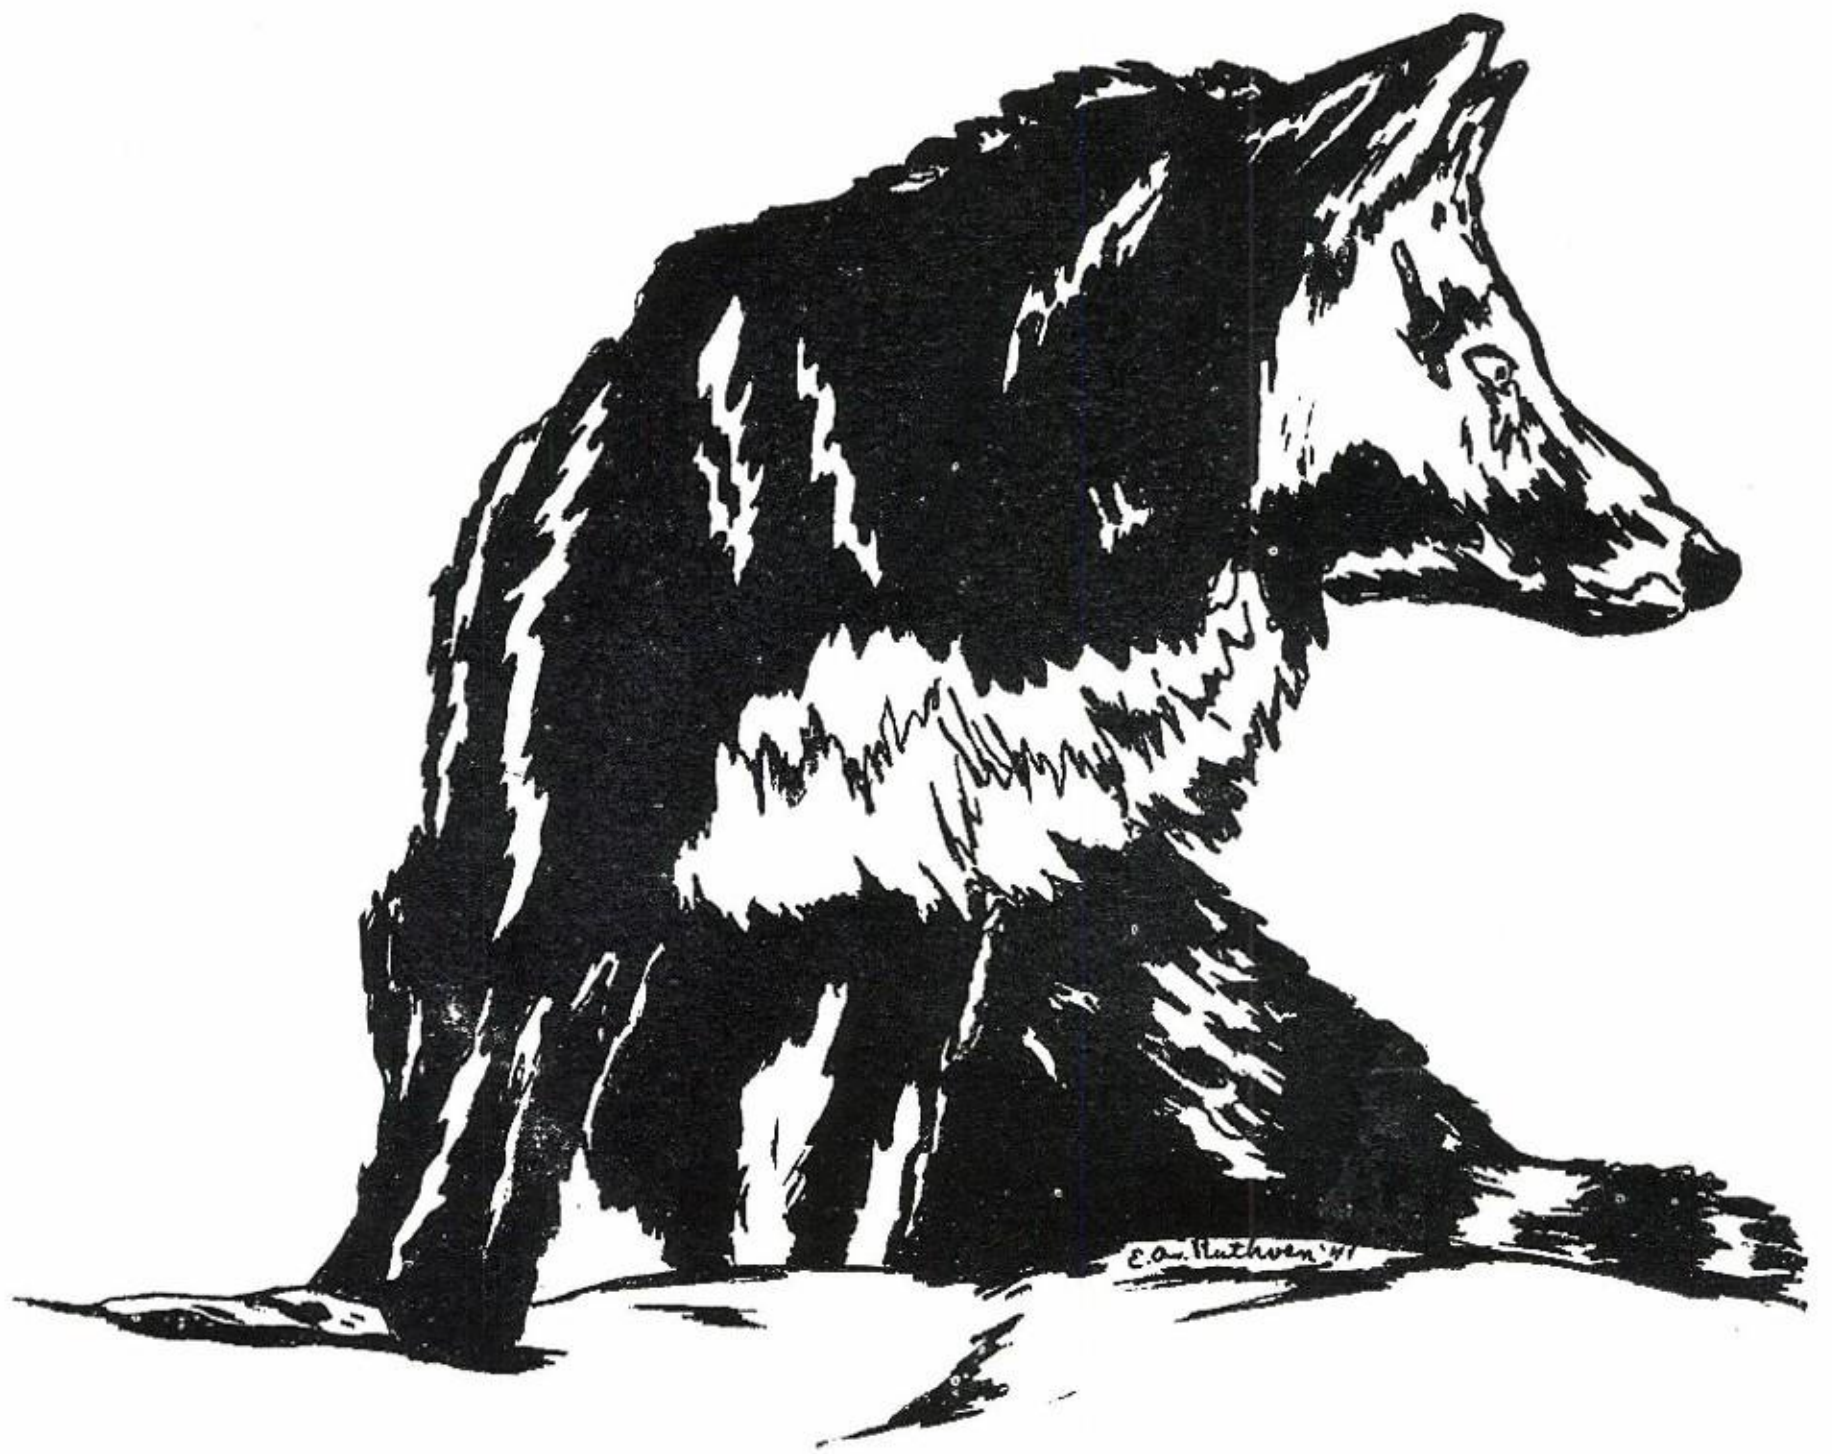

Billy Jack struts around now with a sorority pin on; whose could it be?

There is a little girl that Monte Dhoogen walks with in the halls; who is it?

Some boys must be blind with a cute girl like Bettie Cargile running around loose.

Patsy June finally gave Bobby Bramlett "the air."

It seems Jerry Lucy is one that can get the best of J. G. Hurst.

We wish to thank our advertisers for their cooperation in the publishing of this book, and we hope that the students of Longview High School will repay them by their patronage.
